The Chinese are credited with 13 lins off ony Medeiros, but had there been a pectal column in the block score for tomehead plays, this number would have been less. Tony was hit hard and often, but his team mates contubuted generously by slow thinking. The real feature of the game was La Mere's mighty home run in the fourth inning, which went almost to the tence in right center, forcing the right and center fielders to hurdle the low fence that's built round a pair of frees in that corner of the lot. It was a terrific hit, to much deeper territory than La Mere usually poles
